

Side-A DIC Directors and Officers (D&O) Liability

COVERAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Travelers Broad Form Plus+[™] offers superior personal asset protection in an innovative policy form with exceptional coverage offerings.

Why you and your organization need protection

Specifically designed to meet the unique needs of directors and officers, the Travelers Side-A DIC form combines expert claims handling with extensive coverage for non-indemnifiable claims against directors and officers (Side A) that includes difference in conditions (DIC) drop-down features not found in traditional D&O policies.

Directors and officers' personal assets are at risk with every decision they make, every day. Typically, D&O liability policies include coverage not only for non-indemnifiable loss, but also for lawsuits brought against the organization. This can dilute the policy limit that is available for the directors and officers themselves.

By buying dedicated Side-A only limits, your organization can preserve protection for directors and officers for non-indemnifiable losses.
